UMB Bank Announces Promotions for UMB Fund Services Leadership

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (February 8, 2018) — UMB Bank, n.a., a subsidiary of UMB Financial Corporation (Nasdaq: UMBF), announces it has promoted two UMB Fund Services (UMBFS) executives – Tony Fischer and Maureen Quill.

Tony Fischer has been promoted to national sales director for UMB Fund Services, Investor Solutions, Corporate Trust and Custody at UMB. His responsibilities include business development and strategy, as well as providing leadership to the sales team to ensure collaboration. Tony has more than 30 years of experience in the fund industry. Previously, Tony was president of UMBFS.

Maureen Quill has been promoted to president of UMBFS. She was most recently chief operating officer. Her responsibilities include overall organizational leadership, strategic development and fiscal management. Quill has been with UMBFS since 1996 and in the fund industry for more than 30 years.

As part of a recent organizational realignment, UMB Fund Services is now part of UMB's Institutional Banking division. Fischer and Quill will both report to Jim Cornelius, president of Institutional Banking at UMB.

“This is an exciting time for all of us at UMB as we look to maximize synergies between our Fund Services and Institutional Banking teams while providing scale and focused resources to reach our shared target within institutional markets and distribution channels,” said Jim Cornelius. “Tony and Maureen are both industry veterans that bring the leadership skills and creative thinking necessary to achieve our collaborative goals.”
